General Education Program (started as a Freshman)

Education for Participation in the Global Community

NOTE: These requirements apply to students beginning at any college or university during or after Fall 2007
Refer to the Gen Ed website at http://www.emich.edu/gened for full program details and the most updated program listing.

Student Name: __________________________________________
Intended Major: __________________________________________

Student Number: E __________________________

Area I: Effective Communication
☐ Required course in Written Composition (ENGL 121) or Waiver (International students may use ESLN 412 to satisfy)
☐ Required course in Oral Communication (CTAC 124) or Departmental Waiver
☐ Other University Requirement: All students must complete an approved upper-level “Writing Intensive” course. __________________________________________

Area II: Quantitative Reasoning
☐ One EMU-approved course in Quantitative Reasoning (QR) or Waiver

Area III: Perspectives on a Diverse World
☐ One EMU-approved course on Global Awareness
☐ One EMU-approved course on US Diversity

Area IV: Knowledge of the Disciplines
☐ Two EMU-approved courses in the Arts with different prefixes
☐ Two EMU-approved courses in Humanities with different prefixes
☐ Two EMU-approved courses in Natural Sciences with different prefixes
☐ Two EMU-approved courses in Social Science with different prefixes

Area V: Learning Beyond the Classroom (LBC)
Satisfy two (2) of the six (6) groups through a combination of LBC-approved experiences and/or courses
☐ Group 1 - Self and Well-Being __________________________________________ ☐ Group 2 - Community Service, Citizenship & Leadership __________________________________________
☐ Group 3 - Cultural & Academic Activities & Events __________________________________________
☐ Group 4 - Career and Professional Development __________________________________________
☐ Group 5 - International & Multicultural Experience __________________________________________
☐ Group 6 - Undergraduate Research __________________________________________

Student Signature ____________________________________
Advisor Signature ____________________________________
Date _______________________________________________